

You are Kate, a beautiful blonde with good proportions. You've been dating your boyfriend Clyde for a long time and you have an active sex life. But everything gets a little boring and your boyfriend offered to diversify it a little. Since you both liked to wear different costumes, he managed to find something interesting with the help of friends he said that a surprise would be waiting in your room, and let you try to entertain him.

"Asshole", you thought, remembering the conversation – "And who will entertain me?"

And here lies an unopened box in front of you. For you, it was like unpacking a New Year's gift. Taking the scissors, you were able to carefully open the box. Closing your eyes, you took hold of the edges of the box and opened it. When you opened your eyes you saw...

"Whaaaa? A monster costume? But how did he..." and then you remembered how you told him that in the cartoon Scooby Doo, you were turned on by the idea that all the monsters they meet are actually people in disguise, and that even she can be them, and no one will know until they take off her mask.

And now you see in front of you dense, but almost glossy tights (like latex you thought) in full height, you can say there was a zentai in front of you. In place of the eyes there was something like lenses that glowed with all the colors of the rainbow. High-heeled shoes are already integrated inside, "convenient, but somehow not practical, probably," you thought. And the main part is a swimsuit with the texture of a black mummy, with integrated sleeves at the end of the fingers, which had claws visible, but as if from inside the material. A monster's head was also attached. A face with purple eyes, no nose, mouth and ears. And long hair to the feet in the form of many ribbons of nylon. "Very erotic costume", you really wanted to wear it. Also inside the box was a sheet with instructions, a small control panel and a bottle. The remote control was a rectangle the size of a PS5 remote control, on which there was a slider in full length that could select the value 0, 1 \ 2 or 1. Then you decided to read what was written on the sheet.

"After you put on the suit, activate it by pressing the button located in the back of the remote control. To activate the RP mode, slide the switch from 0 to 1\2 or 1. Have a good time."

"RP mode? For a full immersion, what? I can play it perfectly myself," you thought, although the idea that you can fit more into the role remained in your head. Then you took the bottle, the contents could be sprayed, nothing was written about it in the instructions, so you thought it was perfume and sprayed it on your hand to check. The smell of a strange mixture of nut butter, cocoa and saffron hit my nose. But such a fragrance made your libido wake up.

"Oooh what a smell, what the hell, I can't wait any longer," after these words, you began to take off what you were wearing. A blue T-shirt with the inscription "Obey", beige tights are now lying on the floor. You thought about taking off your underwear, and realized that you wouldn't be able to have fun if you didn't. You take off your white bra, and look at your average but not very small breasts, shaking them in different directions, you thought - "well, my boyfriend likes them," and you always wanted a little more, but then that you drank milk as a child didn't really help. Then white panties are sent there to the floor.

"Well, let's start", you pick up the zentai, you have never felt such a smooth texture. A small zipper was located from the back of the head to the shoulder blades. Unbuttoning the suit and sticking your hand in, you noticed that your skin was slightly translucent, it was very erotic, you couldn't wait to try. Inside, you noticed that there were something like condoms in place of the perineum, but not made of rubber, but of the same material, you just had to push them into both holes. You were a little warped by this idea, you didn't like it when something invaded your fifth point, but there's nothing you can do about it.

You straightened the zentai, and wondered why the zipper was so short, opening the seam wider, you began to plunge your foot inside, the feeling of sliding was like oiled latex. Your foot exactly entered the shoe built into the zentai, the inside of which felt like it was made of the same material. Whether it's the effect of an aphrodisiac or because of the texture of the zentai, but a current seems to run through you when you pull it over your slender legs. It seems to stick to your skin without leaving creases, and you are happy to pull the suit up to your hips. Now inserting condoms didn't seem like such a bad idea, their length almost reached 6 inches, but you continued to slowly push them deeper, moaning with excitement, so that the suit fit you perfectly. After completing the intimate procedures, you stroked yourself from the feet to the hips, you liked the feeling of skin rubbing against the zentai material, but you couldn't wait to put it on completely.

One by one, you slip your arms into the sleeves, and pull the suit up to your chest, which smoothly hugged your boobs, your nipples were already standing. Licking your lips, you look into the eyes of the mask and pull the mask over your head with a sharp movement. Your eyes coincided with the eyes of the mask in which rainbow lenses were inserted, from the outside you saw the world as hippies see it, you even felt a little uncomfortable. It feels like your excitement grew as you put on the suit. Since the zipper started from the shoulder blades, it was not difficult for you to find the zipper tab (even though it is small) and completely close the suit.

You felt as if you were not wearing anything, you felt everything with your hands as if you were out of a suit. You wanted everyone to feel your excitement, to be sensed, and you remembered that you had a bottle. You have treated almost your entire body with this aphrodisiac. Soon you regretted it, as it was absorbed into the fabric and now you literally exuded an intoxicating exciting fragrance. And the first one who was excited to the extreme is you.

Therefore, you ran to the mirror to see an ant-like creature with dazzlingly bright eyes, with your left hand you started massaging your chest, it was so nice to touch yourself through the zentai, and the second hand reached out to the crotch to rub the fully wrapped crotch, inside and out. You wanted to see yourself complete.

So you took up the second part of the costume - a black swimsuit with a monster's head and attached arms. There were no fasteners or anything else on it, so you just had to put it on through the open spaces in the hips. After examining it more closely, you felt the weight of the swimsuit's breasts, a little more than yours.

"That's what I need," you thought.

Pushing aside the part covering the perineum, you began to dive there. It was very stuffy and cramped inside. Now you have already reached your head and are trying to straighten it with your hands, now it has become a little easier to breathe, but this part of the suit was still very dense, and you liked it.

After correcting your face, your eyes coincided with the eyes of the monster mask, and then there was a flash...

Adjustment...

and you could see as usual again, but a little dimmer. In the mirror, you saw that you were looking through dull purple lenses. Your face is like a mummy, black, only the eyes are visible – it was perfect, you smiled under the mask, you wanted to complete the image. Having pulled the new breasts on your own, you just had to stretch the part covering the crotch very much and put your leg in there.

The material stretched well and did not tear, and after you did it, this part slipped out of your hands and hit your intimate place, not to say that it hurt, but from surprise you almost came on the spot. After recovering from the shock, you stood in front of the mirror to evaluate your new look. Perfect fit, nothing sags, you look very sexy and defiant, you already wanted to start touching yourself as you stopped yourself, you need to wait for your boyfriend, and while he was gone, did you think to play with the remote or not?

You take the remote control out of the box and press the button from behind to turn it on.

You screamed in surprise as the whole suit began to squeeze you completely, the suit seemed to shrink by 1.5 times. Your facial features became visible under your mask, you were smiling. The condoms in your holes also stirred. They seem to have merged inside with you. Plunging your fingers in there, you felt even more pleasure than usual. You didn't hold back and came, very intensely.

Your legs gave way and you fell to your knees, you felt a surge of strength, you noticed that the eyes of the mask were moving along with yours, they blinked and glowed bright purple. You tried to pinch yourself for the second skin on your legs, nothing happened, you tried to stretch the swimsuit, it wouldn't go away, and you realized that the zipper was hidden under the swimsuit, you were stuck ... the fire flared up again in your loins, the thought of being sealed in a suit turned you on so much and then you remembered about RP mode.

You reached for the remote control, but a black ribbon flew out from behind your head, which brings the remote control into your hands. You didn't believe, "Is this magic?", you tried to attract a teddy bear, a few ribbons like tentacles flew out, enveloped him and dragged him to you. You felt the power that was now in your hands. And you were still wondering how the RP mode works, and you pulled the switch to 1\2.

Nothing happened and then you were electrocuted, then several more times, it hurt, you grabbed the mask and tried to pull it, nothing happened, tried again, and then you stopped and thought, strange thoughts appeared in your head. "Ah... need more slaves... I... I even left the monster guild to... to what?... To fulfill your desires! I am Great ...!" and then you wondered who you are. In the far corner of your mind sounded "Kate..."

"Exactly how could I forget? Wow, the costume really makes me act out my role perfectly." You got up to go closer to the mirror to look at yourself, and you noticed that even your gait has changed. She became more pretentious, sexy...

You saw a nylon goddess in front of you. The only thing that gave you away as a person was your slightly translucent legs through the material of tights. The tight-fitting swimsuit squeezed you in all intimate places, perfectly emphasizing the features of your beautiful body. Your new face that gently squeezed yours, it was noticeable that you were smiling under the mask. You now had piercing bright purple eyes. Your nylon hair has started to levitate behind you.

You didn't think it was anything unusual anymore, because you had already joined the role and knew who you were. Milena the Nylon Monster, the one who was kicked out of the monster guild because she wanted to gather her army of slaves. Thereby being a rival for Orochi. But out of respect for her and her beauty, she was allowed to just leave. Kate wanted more and more to have her first slave, and this thought did not seem strange to her. Kate herself likes to dominate, but always respects the wishes of the second party. You seem to have started to lose yourself a little while...

You heard the front door open.

"I'm home, darling, I know you've already prepared a surprise for me! I'm already running to you Katyusha". Yeah sometimes he calls you Katyusha.

That voice... You remembered that it was your boyfriend's voice, you loved him, even though you were cheeky with him, but you loved him. He is the one who satisfy all your fetishes and you pay him the same. You decided not to get out of the role, but massaging your temples, you tried to regain composure.

You sat on the bed with your hands folded on your knees, and closed your eyes and waited. Your boyfriend bursts into the room:

"Honey, are you here? I'm coming...", he was stunned to see a black figure sitting on the bed.

"Greetings, I am Milena, the Queen of nylon... if you want to see your girlfriend, then come to me." You stretch out your nylon-covered arms to him, and your hair lengthens and wrapping your boyfriend brings him to you. He was still in shock and therefore didn't make a sound. Your faces were an inch apart, he was looking into your purple eyes, and trying to see your eyes there, you were looking into his eyes full of fear.

He didn't believe you to the end. Then you passionately kissed him through the mask. You tried to reach his tongue with your tongue, but the material was too dense. He felt the softness of your lips and relaxed, closing his eyes and completely immersed in this kiss. He was very excited by a kiss through nylon, it added even more softness to the kiss, and he knew that YOU his beloved was somewhere inside there. With one hand he clasped your back, with the other he began to massage your chest, which became even softer.

"Come on human, show me what you're capable of." You started undressing him, your nylon hair helps you with this. Then you put him on the bed and straddled him, he was already hard. You gagged him with nylon that flew out from behind your head. He moaned when you touched his penis with your hands. He was over the moon with happiness and you felt it with your own hands. Until he finished, you decided to immerse him in yourself.

"I forbid you to ejaculate, otherwise you will be punished," you pushed back the part covering your intimate place, and spreading your pussy lips, you straddled his big throbbing cock. He groaned loudly in the gag, he tried not to cum, but it was impossible. Your insides were also covered with this nylon material. They were slimy and hot, your insides gently enveloping his cock. Your hands explored his toned body, he was tickled and it became even more difficult for him to restrain himself. But it was good for you too, the suit perfectly enhanced your excitement. But the boyfriend couldn't stand it for a long time and came, very much as if you were shot from below, something warm began to spill inside you, your mind was a little clouded.

"I did not allow you to do this, you will be punished..." and you put your hand on his face in a daze. Your hair started wrapping around him, from neck to head. And his head was wrapped in gray opaque nylon in a matter of seconds.

"MMppfhhhh!" your boyfriend started shouting. He reached out with his still unbound hands to his face to tear the cloth off his face, but it wouldn't come off. Seeing how he struggles and suffers under you, you came to your senses and saw what you did.

"Nooooooooo, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to" you tried to tear the fabric on his face, and it gave in to you, you saw your boyfriend's frightened eyes, and you urgently told him

"Urgently... mhhh, find the remote from the suit, it's lying on the table somewhere... uhh, come on, I'll hold my nylon hair!"

Your boyfriend got free and threw you off his dick. You were angry that he was rude to you, but you restrained yourself, you still haven't came. He saw a white remote control lying on the dressing table. He ran to him, but fell, nylon wrapped around his leg. You barely restrained yourself, with the last effort you calmed your nylon hair, the boyfriend took advantage of this moment and grabbed the remote control, and quickly pulled the switch to 0.

It's as if something has been stolen from you, your identity or memories. Your eyes went dark and you fell to the floor. The guy runs up to you and picks you up, your purple eyes have gone out, now he definitely saw that the sleeping beauty in his arms is really you. He put you on the bed and lay down next to you, wrapping you in his arms. And stayed waiting until you wake up...

You woke up after a while, wrapped in the arms of your boyfriend, you held your head, trying to remember what happened. You noticed that you were still wearing a suit, you jumped out of bed, looked at your boyfriend, he was fine.

"Phew, thank God everything worked out..." you exhaled with relief. Then someone grabbed you by the hips from behind and threw you on the bed.

"My queen, let me satisfy you," your boyfriend said and started licking your crotch. You groaned with pleasure, your eyes lit up purple again. Your nylon hair reached out to your boyfriend and started caressing him. Yes, that's how the suit interpreted your feelings for him. His cock was tense and your hair caressed him too, almost cumming, you said that you wanted to cum with him.

He plunged his cock into you and wrapped you in his arms. The suit seemed to do everything for you and you experienced an intense orgasm together. Screaming in ecstasy, you rolled around on the bed. Finally it was over and he pulled his dick out of you and you just stayed lying together holding hands.

You remembered when you were in a daze you covered your boyfriend's face with nylon. And you decided to ask.

"Thank you, this is the best gift you've ever given, this is the best costume in the world! But can I ask you one more favor?"

"Of course, which one?" your boyfriend asked you smiling

"Do you remember I covered your face with nylon when I was not myself? Now I am completely me, but I would like to try again, by mutual consent... can I?" you asked, bringing your face very close to your boyfriend, it was clear from your plaintive look that you were asking sincerely. Your boyfriend took you by your soft cheeks, pulled you up to him and kissed you.

"Of course you can, my Queen."

You responded with the same passionate kiss and laid him on his back. Trying to remember how you did it before, you put your hand on his face and tried to concentrate. The gray cloth started flowing out of your hands, wrapping your boyfriend from head to toe. Over time, the fabric stretched tightly around his body, arms and legs. In front of you now lay a gray doll. He couldn't speak, just hum. The fabric also wrapped around his erect penis. You grabbed his cock and he arched his back coming from your touch alone. Some of the sperm began to flow out from the outside. You decided to be dominant and punish him. You put your hand to his face again to wrap him in nylon again. You thought of a different color and the fabric turned green. He mumbled a lot and started kicking.

"Shhh, hush, sweet, you came too fast...I didn't even have time to ride you," a new layer of fabric enveloped him on top of the previous one. The material was very dense and nothing could be seen underneath, but his facial features and even his strained nipples were visible. You heard how he began to draw air with difficulty, it was probably stuffy under this material, just like you yourself, but you have already got used to it. The fabric tightened around his arms and legs again, and he tried to pull off this outfit. It seemed like he was just wearing a green zentai suit with a pocket for a dick that wouldn't stop standing.

"God loves the Trinity," you said, and began to apply a third layer of blue on it. He was no longer making sounds, just wriggling in his third layer. When the third layer took the shape of his body, he began to try to tear off the shell. This frankly made you laugh and you slowly straddled his penis covered with three layers of lycra. And again, this is an amazing feeling of penetration of something soft and at the same time hard. You started massaging your clitoris with your other hand, and he stopped fighting and started stroking your thighs. It was difficult for him to breathe, you saw how the material was stretched around his mouth, he pulled you to him and hugged, you kissed him literally sucking him in. He moved faster and faster until he came. You felt something hot even through 3 layers of material, but you're not done yet. You got up and straddled his face with your pussy, he protested, but you wanted to get your part of the pleasure. Nylon seemed to give the wearer more strength and energy since his penis was still standing, and you did not hesitate to start jerking him off.

The dirty pleasure of two people played out on the bed, although you can't tell from their appearance that they are people. This time you came at the same time, you filled his face with your juices, and his wrapped penis was wet and sticky. The guy lost consciousness literally from everything. And you decided to get him out of his nylon prison as soon as possible. Having turned him on his stomach, you ran your finger along his back and the incision opened, you take off the hoods and expose his sweaty face. You kissed him gently on the lips and now you were lying next to him in an embrace waiting for him to wake up...

Quickly enough, he woke up, coughed and looked at you and said:

"How do you like my acting? Did you like it? I liked pretending that I wanted to escape. But when you sat down on me, it became really hard to breathe, I came so that I lost consciousness, thank you, my love," and kissed you on the nose.

"Oh, that's how it is," you say – "Next time I'll roll up in 10 layers."

"Hahahahah, you got it," your boyfriend replies, dragging you into another kiss.

"Well, are you going to take off your suit? It must be hot in there."

"He-he, not a chance. I'm gonna stay like this... if only I play with you whole night... Then I will think"

Bad ending

You take the remote control out of the box and press the button from behind to turn it on.

You screamed in surprise as the whole suit began to squeeze you completely, the suit seemed to shrink by 1.5 times. Your facial features became visible under your mask, you were smiling. The condoms in your holes also stirred. They seem to have merged inside with you. Plunging your fingers in there, you felt even more pleasure than usual. You didn't hold back and came, very intensely.

Your legs gave way and you fell to your knees, you felt a surge of strength, you noticed that the eyes of the mask were moving along with yours, they blinked and glowed bright purple. You tried to pinch yourself for the second skin on your legs, nothing happened, you tried to stretch the swimsuit, it wouldn't go away, and you realized that the zipper was hidden under the swimsuit, you were stuck ... the fire flared up again in your loins, the thought of being sealed in a suit turned you on so much and then you remembered about RP mode.

You reached for the remote control, but a black ribbon flew out from behind your head, which brings the remote control into your hands. You didn't believe, "Is this magic?", you tried to attract a teddy bear, a few ribbons like tentacles flew out, enveloped him and dragged him to you. You felt the power that was now in your hands. And you were still wondering how the RP mode works, and you pulled the switch to 1.

Nothing happened and then you were electrocuted, then several more times. It hurt, you dropped the remote control and grabbed the mask and tried to pull it, nothing happened, tried again, and then you stopped and thought, strange thoughts appeared in your head.

"Monster Guild... I am Milena the Nylon Monster... more slaves..."

Inside you, the dildo vibrated sending you to the seventh heaven. You clung to your ample breasts with your hands. A voice appeared in your head.

"Surrender to your temptation... And you will bathe in eternity orgasm... forever..."

When you heard the condition, you immediately came. It was obvious how you stuck out your tongue under the mask. A strong orgasm made your mind turn blank, and it was immediately captured by the will of the suit. You were shaking in bliss as everything went dark for you abruptly. You fell to your knees and bowed your head.

POV Milena

After a while you raise your head, it was visible that you were grinning under the mask.

"How long have I been sleeping..." - you stroked your nylon face.

"You did a great job girl ... but know that I will not give you the body..." - you said stroking your crotch and chest.

"And so that it doesn't happen by accident..." - you pick up the remote control, and in your hand it turns into layers of gray nylon.

"I'll hide it out of sight. I want to have fun with you for a long, long time..." - you pushed aside the fabric of the black leotard and pushed the gray cocoon deep into your pussy. You felt how the girl inside began to squirm, as promised, you make her experience a continuous orgasm, excessive stimulation only enhances the effect.

Sooner or later, she'll go crazy, and she won't be able to think about anything but pleasure... unless she's rescued. Covering the pussy with a cloth and patting the crotch, you rolled into a deep laugh.

You heard the front door open.

"I'm home, darling, I know you've already prepared a surprise for me! I'm already running to you Katyusha"

"Aaaaaaa... your friend ... will be a great opening for my new collection"

Your boyfriend bursts into the room.

"Darling are you here? I will..." - he was stunned to see a black figure standing in the middle of the room.

«Welcome... my honor guest...»

You unceremoniously released your nylon hair in his direction. They quickly tore off all his clothes, leaving him naked, and then began wrapping his entire body in gray nylon. He was screaming and trying to break out of your bonds. But you covered him very quickly from head to toe, from the outside it seemed that he was wearing a gray zentai. His hands were tied behind him and he was shaking. His cock was standing and he was also wrapped in nylon.

"Now you're going to help me with something" - you moved him to the bed. You stood right over him pushing back the fabric of the black swimsuit again.

"Come on, satisfy me... and I'll let you go..."

You teased your pussy by running it over the head of his penis. Then, massaging your clitoris, you slowly plunged it inside yourself. You didn't care if the girl inside understood what was going on or not, whether she was conscious or not. Now it was your body that would definitely not resist, and you would do whatever you wanted. The gray cocoon inside you began to push into deepest part of your pussy But your pleasure didn't last long, because he came almost immediately.

"Pathetic mortal, there is your punishment!"

You put your palm to it, and it began to wrap itself in another layer of nylon again. His moans were almost drowned out, and his facial features were becoming increasingly indistinct. His penis got up again and you continued the trip. Maybe the girl inside was having fun, but you didn't get much of it, so you needed more.

You gave a little freedom to your drone and ordered her to fuck until she came. He hesitated, but fulfilled the condition and he began to fuck you powerfully stroking your perfect black body. You were already very close and...

The girl's voice came out of your mouth, a very loud moan of pleasure. She felt it too, and you were offended that she gets a lot more pleasure. After a little convulsions, you felt that it became easier to control the body, apparently she completely left, leaving you her body and soul. But nevertheless, you have experienced something that you have not felt for a long time. A wet cocoon has fallen out of your pussy. In gratitude for the work done, you put your hand on her boyfriend's head.

A bright light enveloped his head. He started trying to remove your hand from his head. Then he was shaking all over and then he just drooped. When he got up he said:

"My lady, at your service"

You smiled maliciously, thinking over the plan of your triumphant return.

You picked up the remote cover in wet gray nylon.
